OK's Local Savings Firm

Torrance has been given federal approval and permission to organize a saving and loan association.
This was the word received this week by William F. McKenna and Ralph H. Finch, attorneys who have been representing individuals in petitioning for a mutual saving and loan institution in this area.
The petition seeking the association was filed last March by McKenna and Finch on behalf of Roscoe L. Wood, Nicholas Trutanic, Mildred Beckstrand, John Cogan, Manley Natland and Jack Drown. The petition was thereafter approved by the regional office of the Home Loan Bank Board in Los Angeles and San Francisco and thereafter by the staff in Washington, D.C.
A statement issued by the group read as follows: "We are highly enthusiastic of having been given permission to organize a saving and loan association in Torrance. Each account will be insured up to $10,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation and we will be regularly examined and closely supervised by the federal government."

The groom is the son of Scotty Moore of Long Beach.
The bride's gown was of ivory brocaded satin with an off-the-shoulder neckline of puffed sleeves. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was caught at the temples with tiny rosebuds. She carried a bouquet of red roses.
The maid of honor was Miss Lydia Marie Doyle and the bridesmaid was Miss Claudia Pisel of Torrance.
Serving as best man was Delwin Mender.
The couple left on a honeymoon to Riverside and will return to live in Lomita. The groom is a senior at Narbonne high school.
The bride's mother who is in the hospital was unable to attend the wedding.

Local Scouts Spend Week At Big Horn

Eighteen members of Torrance Boy Scout Troop No. 241 arrived at Big Horn Camp in the San Bernardino mountains on Saturday, August 20 for a week of extensive activity of hiking, swimming, handicraft, nature study and other scouting activities.
Complete equipment including a heated swimming pool, handicraft huts, hospital, commissary and a post exchange are provided for the boys, in addition to the trained counsellors and a physician that are on hand to guide them in their various activities and provide for their health and welfare.
Tents, cooking equipment and food are furnished to the boys from the commissary and the menus are planned in advance by the Scout Council. All cooking is done by the boys under the watchful eyes of adult leaders. Periodic inspection is held to insure cleanliness and neatness.

Boys from Troop No. 241 attending camp are Bud Pool, senior patrol leader, Ned Morang and Ollie Lessin, patrol leaders, Doug Stevens, quartermaster, Skip Wilson, Albert Bundrum, Joe Reddington, Joe Paget, Bud Brand, Jim Scheibler, Allen Brisack, Charles Moffitt, Bill Roeder, Earl Shanklin, Danny Kirks, Bill Holland, Dion Dyer and David Battrell.
Committee Chairman D. B. Kirks drove the boys to camp in the troop truck. Scoutmaster Orlo Pool and committee members Alvin Chandler and W. D. Roeder were also in attendance at camp during the week.

The boys will be given an opportunity to earn merit badges in such activities as swimming, life saving, nature study, hiking, signalling and other phases of scouting during their stay at camp.
An outing at Lake Arrowhead Village, including motor boat rides, refreshments and entertainment in the fun zone, through the courtesy of the Lake Arrowhead management, is also included in the entertainment for the troop.
